Freedom of Expression Weekly Newsletter (Issue 45/20 - November 6, 2020)

What happened last week?

- 114 citizens have lost their lives in the 6.9 earthquake in Izmir last Friday. With the pain of all that happened, the incidents brought back the reality of an earthquake, making us face the bitter truth... However, the government is determined in not taking responsibility, once again.
- The government continues to put the responsibility on the people, both for the earthquake and for the pandemic. As the pandemic continues with full speed, the data is even worse than April, when the outbreak peaked in Turkey. Erdoğan advised the citizens to avoid crowds and not even visit homes if it's not absolutely necessary. He stated that no crisis was faced, thanks to the power of the health infrastructure, and the number of daily patients is at a manageable level by all means... According to Health Minister Fahrettin Koca, on the other hand, "one of the main reasons for the increase in daily cases is living life like it was before the pandemic." So the responsibility of the outbreak is on the patients...
- The US Dollar started this week with a record as well. The Dollar exceeded 8 Turkish Liras last week and this week, it exceeded 8.5 TL and the Euro 10 TL. Inflation rates in October broke the record in 2020. According to President Erdoğan, however, who repeated his claim that they have made Turkey step into the new age in democracy and economy, there are certain attacks against the country...
- The period allowed by the government against social network providers so that they can "identify representatives in Turkey" within the regulation known as the "Social Media Law" was over by November 2nd. Sanctions have started against the social network providers... Information Technologies and Communications Authority (BTK) sentenced social media platforms that didn't assign representatives, including Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, YouTube, Periscope and TikTok, to 10 million Turkish Liras of administrative fines each. Deputy Minister of Transportation and Infrastructure has announced the penalties against the social media platforms through Twitter, which is among those penalised.
- 22 more summaries against 18 Parliament members, including People's Democratic Party (HDP) Co-Chair Pervin Buldan and Republican People's Party (CHP) leader Kemal Kılıçdaroğlu, were presented to the Parliament.
- The People's Democratic Party (HDP) made a statement on the fourth anniversary of the arrest operation against its Parliament Members on November 4, 2016, including Co-Chairs Selahattin Demirtaş and Figen Yüksekdağ. The party has also shared messages of the politicians, who are still in prison. In the statement made by the People's Democratic Party (HDP) Central Executive Council, it was expressed, "The democratic politics is stronger than ever, with the power it takes from people and despite all attacks, with its sources of legitimation. It continues on its way with faith and resistance.”

- Arrests continue within the “Kobani” investigation. Peace and Democracy Party (BDP) former MP Ibrahim Binici, People’s Democratic Party (HDP) Party Assembly member Mesut Bağcık and Ayşe Yağcı were arrested with a decree issued by Ankara 7th Criminal Judicature of Peace.
- Rights advocate and businessman Osman Kavala left three years behind in prison...
- We have prepared a report, as the Initiative for Freedom of Expression, on November 2, the “Day to Fight Against Impunity in Crimes Against Journalists” declared by the United Nations. As every year, we haven’t limited our report to the impunity experienced by the journalists and we handled the issue as a whole, with case examples on other crimes as well.
